

Dr. Timothy Harlin is an executive with Sullivan Brothers, a 15 company conglomerate based in Galveston, TX. His responsibilities include overseeing strategic initiatives for Centurion a $1.5b correctional healthcare subsidiary.

Prior to his work with the Sullivan Brothers, Dr. Harlin was Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB) Health System, where he oversees all clinical strategy and operations of a system that includes six hospitals and approximately 100 clinics, plus a healthcare system that serves the health care needs of 80% of Texas' offenders.

Dr. Harlin has an extensive background in helping complex health care organizations reach their potential in terms of patient experience, clinical outcomes, operational efficiency and growth, and financial stability.

Prior to joining UTMB, Dr. Harlin served as chief operating and acceleration officer at Denver Health and Hospital Authority in Colorado—an academic integrated health system. Prior to Denver Health, Harlin served as chief operating officer at Hennepin Health System in Minneapolis.

Dr. Harlin is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. After receiving his Bachelor of Science degree from Auburn University, he earned a Master of Business Administration degree at Emory University and a Doctor of Science degree from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Dr. Harlin is married to the former Beth Gresham from LaGrange, GA. He has two grown, married children and resides in Galveston, TX.