

ACHE Chapter Panel Discussion

“Ethical Challenges in Healthcare Leadership”

Session Panelist – October 15, 2015

BIOGRAPHY

Timothy Puthoff

Tim Puthoff is the Chief Executive Officer at Houston Northwest Medical Center, a 423-bed hospital located about 20 miles north of Downtown Houston. Prior to joining Houston Northwest in 2013, Tim enjoyed a 13-year career with Community Health Systems, serving in hospital CEO roles, and as a Vice President of Operations at the corporate level. Tim is a three-time recipient of CHS’s “Leadership Excellence” award for outstanding hospital performance.

Tim has a Master’s Degree in Health Administration and an undergraduate degree in Business Administration from the University of Central Florida in Orlando, FL. He has always been active in his community, including board leadership roles in various civic and charitable organizations. In Houston, Tim currently serves on the SETRAC Board, and the Houston Northwest Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Council. He has been married for 17 years to his wife, Amy. They have two daughters, Isabel and Abigail.