Client Service Partner
Slalom Consulting

Mike Kuo is a Client Service Partner at Slalom Consulting, a provider of strategy, operations, change management and technology-enabled business transformation services. He leads key accounts and provides strategic leadership and direction for the healthcare practice, and is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE).

Mike has extensive leadership experience in healthcare, with a strong focus on innovation. In his role at Slalom, Mike advises healthcare organizations on how to best leverage innovative technologies and approaches to optimize operations and care delivery, ranging from use of clinical decision support platforms to effective use of data and analytics. He has also provided advisory services to a number of organizations affiliated with TMCx, the Innovation Institute for Texas Medical Center.

Mike previously served as the Vice President of Commercial Operations for the Innovative Delivery Solutions unit at Cardinal Health, responsible for all support operations related to marketing, sales and product development in a $12B+ healthcare solutions and pharmaceutical supply chain enterprise. Prior to his tenure at Cardinal Health, Mike spent ten years at Pfizer in roles of increasing responsibility, with Director-level roles in Corporate Strategy, Global Business Analytics & Insights, Commercial Operations and Operational Excellence.

Mike spent five years at Deloitte, where he was part of the strategy and operations practice, focused in the Life Sciences industry. He holds an undergraduate degree from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from Columbia Business School.
