

Toni Von Wenckstern, RN, MS
VP and Chief Nursing Officer
Memorial Hermann – Texas Medical Center

Toni Von Wenckstern has held a rich career with Memorial Hermann that began in 1992, when she was recruited from University Medical Center in Tucson, Arizona as Director of Emergency Services. Her career progressed within the Memorial Hermann Health System over the next 15 years as she held the position of Director of Patient Care, Critical Care and Emergency Services, Administrative Director and Assistant Vice President of Nursing and Operations for the Red Duke Trauma Institute, Medicine Service Line and Ambulatory Clinics.

In 2018, she was recruited to Vancouver, Washington where she served as Chief Nursing Officer for PeaceHealth-Southwest Medical Center. In 2019, Toni returned to Memorial Hermann-Texas Medical Center as Chief Nursing Officer, where she is currently responsible for the overall delivery of nursing care. Operationally, Toni also has oversight of the Neurosciences, Trauma, and Transplant Service Lines.

Toni holds a bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of South Florida in Tampa and a master's degree in nursing/family nurse practitioner from Texas Women's University in Houston. An award-winning practitioner, she has authored and co-authored a number of presentations and publications. Ms. Von Wenckstern is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and the American Organization of Nurse Executives.

A proud mother of 5 children and grandmother to 7 beautiful grandchildren, Toni loves spending time with her family. When her golf game is good, she enjoys a round with her husband Eric.
