

TIM'S BIO

Tim Schauer joined Cornerstone in 2011 in the firm's flagship Houston, Texas office. Tim has more than 25 years of government relations experience working in Houston, Austin and Washington, DC. Tim has advocated for a broad range of policy issues including health care, health insurance, public health, tort reform, education, water financing, pensions, economic development and craft beer. In addition to his direct advocacy efforts, Tim specializes in public policy development with community organizations, as exemplified by his ongoing work with Healthy Living Matters - a Houston collaborative focused on solving childhood obesity since 2012. Tim is a recognized expert on the uninsured, Medicaid/CHIP funding and policy, he has delivered numerous presentations to health organizations and businesses alike.