

Biography

Deborah Boone is the Section Administrator for Clinical Ethics and Education within the Center for Medical Ethics and Health Policy at Baylor College of Medicine. Prior to joining the Center, she served as the Baylor College of Medicine Healthcare Administrative Fellow. During her fellowship, Deborah had the opportunity to work on a variety of projects with several departments and leaders at Baylor College of Medicine. She completed rotations and projects with Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation (PM&R), Orthotics & Prosthetics, Patient Business Services, Women's Health OB/GYN, Baylor Improvement Group, Department of Pathology and Immunology, and Ambulatory Operations.

Before starting her healthcare career, Deborah worked in New York City for DWS Investments (formerly Deutsche Bank). Deborah graduated from The University of Texas Health Science Center (UTHealth), School of Public Health with a Master of Public Health in Healthcare Management. She has a Bachelor's degree from Hampton University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude from the Honors College Program.