

LINDSAY LANAGAN

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Lindsay Lanagan is the Vice President of Government Relations & Public Affairs for Legacy Community Health Services. In her role, Lindsay oversees federal, state and local government relations for the organization to influence policy at all levels of government, and leads the Public Affairs team.

Prior to joining Legacy in 2018, Lanagan was Senior Manager of State Government Relations for McKesson Specialty Health, one of the nation's largest health care companies, where she directed state policy for a 23-state region. Lanagan previously led the City of Houston's Intergovernmental Relations office where she oversaw local, state and federal government relations for the largest city in Texas. Prior to the Mayor's office, Lindsay worked on multiple political campaigns, and served as a staff assistant in a congressional office.

In her free time she enjoys exercising, cooking and watching live music.
