

Rod Brace, PhD
Founding Partner
Relia Healthcare Advisors
Austin, Texas

Rod Brace, Ph.D. is a founding partner of Relia Healthcare Advisors which provides expertise in high reliability organizational models, quality and safety culture assessments, leadership and organizational strategy and executive development.

Dr. Brace retired as Regional President and Chief Learning Officer for the Memorial Hermann Health System in Houston, Texas.

Rod is a national speaker, author and executive coach. He holds an MBA and PhD in Management with a research emphasis in leadership, employee engagement, and organizational cultures.