

Meredith C. Inniger, MHA, FACHE

Principal

Meredith brings over 15 years of experience in both healthcare consulting and healthcare operations to the development of focused and actionable strategies for Veralon clients. She advises many types of healthcare organizations nationally, including academic medical centers, large community health systems, and independent hospitals.

Her expertise includes:

- Strategic planning engagements, including clinical program and ambulatory strategic planning
- Board development, including facilitating retreats and assessment of organizational governance strategy, structure, and operations
- Mergers and affiliations, notably independence assessments, potential partner identification, facilitation of partnership decisions, and post-integration planning
- Physician strategies, particularly physician-hospital alignment models

She is a fellow and faculty member of the American College of Healthcare Executives where she teaches the course "Advanced Strategic Planning to Transform Your Organization" and others.

Meredith currently serves on the board for the Philadelphia chapter of ACHE and Meredith was the recipient of ACHE's Early Career Healthcare Executive Award. She is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and is the co-editor and contributing author of Healthcare Strategic Planning, Fifth Edition (Health Administration Press).