

Shawn Rossi, DHA, FACHE, serves as the vice president of communication and member engagement for the Mississippi Hospital Association and an assistant professor in the Doctor of Health Administration (DHA) program at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. She is a board-certified Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE). She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Mississippi Organ Recovery Agency, the Mississippi Public Health Association, the Mississippi Society of Association Executives, the Alzheimer's Association of Mississippi, and ACHE of Mississippi. She is a member of the University of Southern Mississippi's (USM's) Community Health Advisory Board, the Age-Friendly Mississippi Advisory Council, and the Mississippi Early Childhood Development Council.

Dr. Rossi holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in English from USM and a DHA from UMMC. She is the co-author of Socially Determined: The Healthcare Executive's Role in Health Equity, published by ACHE Learn in 2025.